Day 2 – Ha Long Bay Day Cruise Trip

Tour will begin at 7h00. Discover one of Vietnam's most spectacular northern jewels with the Halong Bay day cruise. Departure from the buzzing streets of Hanoi in the morning, leaving the city buildings behind in exchange for the beautiful of the Red River Delta. Pass by smaller towns and farmlands, enjoying views of typical Vietnamese countryside. Half way into the three and a half hour-journey, stop for a stretch and a drink at a local rest stop.

Resume the drive, arriving in Ha Long City late morning and board a private boat. Cast off and cruise across the emerald green water of UNESCO-listed Halong bay. Sit in the dining area or on the open-air top deck to admire the scenery and the refreshing sea breeze. The boat captain will navigate the boat around the Bay's 1.500 limestone island, providing an opportunity to see these remarkable, geologic wonders both up-close and from afar. The boat will stop for you to visit Thien Cung Cave (Heaven Palace), one of the most beautiful caves on Ha Long bay.

Around midday, lunch will be served on board. Enjoy attentive, personalized service by the ship's crew while feasting on delicious, fresh seafood and a selection of Vietnamese dishes. After dining the ship will begin circling back to port, following a different route along the way for more breath-taking views. Say farewell to the ship's crew and climb back into the vehicle for the return journey to Hanoi.

Arrive at the hotel in time for a chance to freshen up before dinner.

Day 4 – Ba Na Hills Day Tour

Morning, departure for Ba Na Hills, or Chua Mount (Mount of Goddess), by passing the sea-shore on Nguyen Tat Thanh Street, one of the most beautiful roads of Da Nang City and Red Beach. Ba Na Hills used to be a small French resort nestled in the mountains and recently has been turning into the most well-known amusement park of Vietnam thanks to its good location, formation and climate.

Arrive at the Cable car station at the foot of Ba Na Mountain. Enjoy the first leg Cable car, which achieves two Guinness World records as the longest non-stop cable car (5,042m) and the highest non-stop cable car (1,292m). The cable cars were built to feed the mountaintop of Ba Na Hills, but they're also the perfect way to get spectacular views of Danang and the surrounding forests.

Upon reaching Ba Na Hills, start the trip with a visit to Golden Bridge which is designed to connect the cable car station with the main gardens of this mountaintop. It is also to provide a scenic overlook and tourist attraction. The gold-colored walkway is lined with purple Lobelia Chrysanthemums and is 150 meters long with two giant hands, constructed of fiberglass and wire mesh. These two hands appear like stone hands that support the structure.

After the Golden Bridge, we'll continue to visit Le Jardin d' Amour, old wineries, remains of French Villas and Ling Ung Pagoda with 27m high Buddha status. We then leave the Le Jardin for the second cable car station to visit the top of mountain where there are remains of the old French villas found. Start conquering the Peak of Chua Mount at the height of 1,487m, viewing the whole Da Nang city under the cluster of white clouds. After the Peak of Chua Mount, visit the trail of Dreaming Stream, Rainbow Waterfall, Suspension Bridge, Golden Valley, and ruined Opera House. Play with wild monkeys and take photos. Freely until time back to Cable car Station to return to the the foot of the Mountain. Get on the car & transfer back your hotel in Da Nang
